

Corruption and its Impact

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

- 1 Corruptions and Its Impact
- 2 How to Lodge a Complaint
- 3 Project Vigeye

Corruption is found to be one of the most damaging consequences of poor governance system. It is characterized by lack of both transparency and accountability. Corruption lowers investment and hinders economic growth also human development. It also limits access to basic social services as well as increases the cost of their delivery. It is one of the factors responsible for poverty. Corruption negatively subverts the financial system, and undermines the legitimacy of the state. Thus, corruption is anti-poor, antidevelopment, anti-growth, anti-investment and inequitable. The cost of corruption to a nation is very high. Adverse effects of corruption on growth have been statistically corroborated from cross-country data. A community in seventy countries finds a significant negative association between the Corruption Index and the rates of investment and economic growth.

Project Vigeye

The term Vigeye refers to a person who is a vigilant citizen, a volunteer and citizens join hands with the Central Vigilance Commission in fighting corruption in India. Project VIGEYE (Vigilance Eye) is the platform through which vigilance information flows freely through common public, the government agencies and the vigilance commission, making it possible to achieve a step jump in improving the corruption index of the nation. You can send a blank SMS or "VIGEYE" to 09223174440 to get an SMS containing the registration link in your mobile. You have to register first, before filing a complaint.

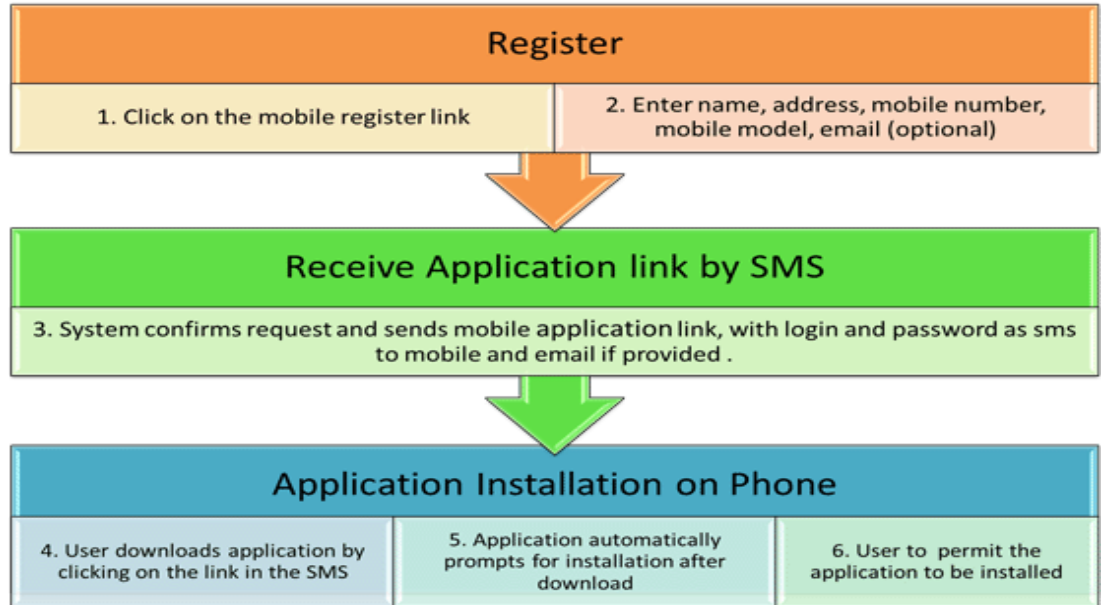

1. A complaint can be filed through the mobile phones to the CVC. The application downloaded from the CVCs websites enables mobile users to file complaints with photo, or a voice recording, or a video or a note from the mobile. The complaint is uploaded using the GPRS connectivity.

The complainant may choose the Organization and nature of the complaint for effective categorization and assignment of the complaint. The complaint is forwarded to the concerned CVO and the complainant is updated with the status. The complainant can login with your registered mobile number and password to view the status of all the complaints filed.

“A ‘no’ uttered from deepest conviction is better and greater than a ‘yes’ merely uttered to please, or worse, to avoid trouble”.
